SHADOW 06 / FIGURE 7

Who must mark what, at 16 October 2026

JURISDICTION	IMAGE / VIDEO / AUDIO	TEXT	DEEPFAKE LABEL	PLATFORM DUTY	STATUS
EU AI Act Art. 50 (+Reg. 2026/1744) yes C01;C04;C05	yes	yes (provider marking; deployer disclosure for public-interest text)	yes	—	applies from 2 Aug 2026; 50(2) legacy systems by 2 Dec 2026
California (US) AI Transparency Act as amended by SB 1000 yes C20-C23	yes (latent disclosure)	not in latent-disclosure provision	—	from 1 Jan 2027	operative 2 Aug 2026; platform duties 1 Jan 2027
India IT Rules amendment 2026 yes C30;C31	yes (SGI)	not SGI; general obligations apply	yes	yes	in force 20 Feb 2026
South Korea AI Basic Act + MSIT guidance yes C40;C41	yes	yes (methods differ by output type)	yes (human-recognisable)	—	commenced 22 Jan 2026; grace period announced
China Labelling Measures no (English quotation gate) C10-C12	yes	yes	yes	yes	in force 1 Sep 2025
UK no statutory labelling duty found no C60	no	no	—	—	—
Japan election-law amendment (agreed May 2026) no C62	—	—	election content only	annual reporting	bill status unverified
Brazil PL 2338/2023 no C63	—	—	—	—	awaiting opinion in Chamber
Australia voluntary guidance yes C64	recommended	recommended	—	eSafety standards for some providers	voluntary
UAE media content standards (Media Council) yes U12	—	—	prior approval for national symbols/public figures	—	in force
Saudi Arabia SDAIA guidance no C52a;C52b	recommended (watermarks)	—	context-dependent	—	guidance
Qatar MCIT AI ethical guidelines yes C53a	—	—	—	—	voluntary and non-binding

CAPTION

A comparison of specified obligations, not a ranking of countries' overall AI regulation.

NOTE

not verified to PRIMARY in English by cutoff

SOURCE Supplied Pack 02 · F7_obligations.csv · ledger IDs printed beside each jurisdiction.